TRI-STAR TRUST BANK WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Stella Cash is now a board member at Tri-Star Trust Bank.

Lansing, Mich. – Tri-Star Trust Bank, with offices in Saginaw, Midland, Frankenmuth and Greater Lansing, announced earlier today that Stella Cash has joined its Board of Directors. Cash is the Vice-President of Development and Strategic Partnerships at Sparrow Health System. Before coming to Sparrow in 2010, Cash served as the Director of the Dietetics Program for more than 25 years at Michigan State University. Most recently, she served as the Interim Vice President for Alumni Engagement and Executive Director of the MSU Alumni Association.

Among other designations, Cash has a Master of Science degree in Institution Administration from Michigan State University and a Master of Education degree from the University of Arkansas. Currently, she serves as a board member for the University Club of MSU, as well as being actively involved in the Zonta Club of East Lansing and Women Working Wonders, an organization supporting women's health and wellness in mid-Michigan.

"Tri-Star is honored to have Stella join our board," said Larry Preston, CEO of Tri-Star Trust Bank. "Her active and long-standing engagement in many aspects of the community will be instrumental in helping Tri-Star carry out its values of caring for clients, each other, and our community."

Cash is married to Dr. Jerry Cash, Professor Emeritus, Michigan State University, and they have two daughters who live in the Lansing area. She and her husband reside in Bath.
