TRI-STAR TRUST BANK WELCOMES NEW EMPLOYEE!

Cynthia Bellaver takes position at Tri-Star as receptionist.

FRANKENMUTH, Mich. – Tri-Star Trust Bank welcomes Cynthia Bellaver to its Frankenmuth office. Bellaver joins the Tri-Star team as a receptionist. Prior to coming to Tri-Star, she served as a teller and customer service representative for National Bank of Royal Oak.

Bellaver received her Associates in Liberal Arts from Macomb Community College. She has also attended Dale Carnegie and Stephen Covey training courses, giving her a well-rounded set of skills.

Residing in Frankenmuth, Bellaver lives with her husband Rex. She enjoys being active in her community, volunteering with the Frankenmuth Mid-Michigan Unit of the Herb Society of America and the Frankenmuth Women's Club. Bellaver had this to say about joining the Tri-Star team; "Community involvement and support is very important to me. Without involvement and support, a community would cease to grow. Tri-Star Trust Bank exemplifies this. I am proud to be a part of the Tri-Star Family!" In her spare time, Bellaver enjoys gardening, knitting, sewing, taking walks and spending time with her family.
