TRI-STAR TRUST BANK WELCOMES NEW EMPLOYEE AT SAGINAW OFFICE

Kevin Dobson takes position at Tri-Star Trust Bank as Investment Associate.

SAGINAW, Mich. – Tri-Star Trust Bank welcomes Kevin Dobson to its Saginaw office location. Dobson joins the Tri-Star team as an Investment Associate who will work directly with Tri-Star’s Chief Investment Officer, Steven Witten, and the entire Investment Department. Dobson brings finance management and reporting experience to his new role at Tri-Star, previously having served as Special Education Finance Coordinator of the Saginaw Intermediate School District and Business Manager of the International Academy of Saginaw.

A native of England, Dobson is a former member of the Royal British Army. He received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Saginaw Valley State University.

“Kevin will be a valuable addition to the Investment team,” said Steven Witten. “His analytical and people skills will allow him to make an immediate contribution. It’s a credit to Tri-Star that we as an organization are able to attract such bright, energetic, and talented individuals. I’m excited for the role Kevin will play in Tri-Star’s future.”

Dobson and his family reside in Freeland, where his wife, Joy, teaches third grade, and their three daughters attend school. He believes strongly in giving back to the community, taking part in several nonprofit organizations such as the St. Agnes Church, Underground Railroad, and Relay for Life among others.
