TRI-STAR TRUST BANK WELCOMES NEW EMPLOYEE!

Ann Hall takes position at Tri-Star as Relationship Officer.

SAGINAW, Mich. – Tri-Star Trust Bank welcomes Ann Hall to its Saginaw office location. Hall joins the Tri-Star team as a Relationship Officer. She brings over 25 years of customer service experience and seven years of legal experience to her new role. Prior to coming to Tri-Star, she served as a solo practicing attorney in Owosso, Michigan and founding member of Pathfinder Legal Services, PLC.

Hall received her Juris Doctorate from Thomas M. Cooley Law School and a Bachelor of Science in Political Science from Central Michigan University.

“As part of the Tri-Star team, Ann’s knowledge and expertise will be a tremendous help working with clients each day,” said Jack Kidwell, Senior Vice President and Director of Philanthropic Solutions Group at Tri-Star. “In addition, she brings the caring and concern for people, which helps to provide excellent service to the clients we take care of.”

Being involved in the community is very important to Hall, values that Tri-Star shares. Along with serving as the current President of the Shiawassee United Way, Hall also serves as Vice-Chair of the Shiawassee County Zoning Board of Appeals. She is also actively involved in her community theatre, performing on-stage as well as handling make-up and costumes for productions for the Owosso Community Players. Hall had this to say about her new appointment at Tri-Star, “I am excited to be working with a great group of professionals who are so devoted to their clients, their community and to each other.”

Hall lives in Owosso with her husband, Greg, and their two children, Jake and Kevin.
